Or e-mail admin@hcmac.co.uk

2. What is a Privacy Notice?

A Privacy Notice sets out to individuals how we use any personal information that we hold about them. We are required to publish this information by data protection legislation. This Privacy Notice explains how we process (collect, store, use and share) personal information about job applicants.

3. What is Personal Information?

Personal information relates to a living individual who can be identified from that information. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession.

'Special category' personal information reveals racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.

4. What personal information do we process about Directors and Local Governing Body Members?

The categories of Directors and Local Governing Body Members information that we collect, hold and share include:

- personal information such as name, any former names, address, date of birth, occupation nationality, telephone and email contact details,
- Records of Business Interest
- Disclosure and Barring Service Certificate number and start date
- Self-assessment skills audit
- Personal profiles provided for Trust/School website

5. For what purposes do we use personal information?

We use Directors and Local Governing Body Members data to:

- Fulfill statutory obligations
- Communicate relevant information to individuals or groups or Boards or Local Academy Committees for the purpose of them carrying out their roles and responsibilities as a Director or Local Governing Body Member.

6. Collecting Director and Local Governing Body Member information

Whilst the majority of Director and Local Governing Body Member information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain Director or Local Governing Body Member information to us or if you have a choice in this.

7. What are the legal reasons for us to process your personal information?

We are required to process personal information in accordance with data protection legislation and only do so when the law allows us to. Data Protection law sets out the lawful reasons we have to process your personal information and these are as follows:

a. To comply with the law

We collect and use general purpose staff information in order to meet certain legal requirements and legal obligations placed upon the school by UK law. We therefore have the right to process your personal information for such purposes without the need to obtain your consent.

Details of the type of processing that we must undertake, the personal data that is processed, the legislation which requires us to do so and who we may share this information with is set out in Table 1.

b. To protect someone's vital interests

We are able to process personal information when there is an emergency and/or where a person's life is in danger.

Details of the type of processing that we may undertake on this basis and who we may share that information is set out in Table 2.

- c. With the consent of the individual to whom that information 'belongs'
Whilst much of the personal information is processed in accordance with a legal requirement, there is some personal information that we can only process when we have your consent to do so. In these circumstances, we will provide you with specific and explicit information regarding the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

Details of the type of processing that we may undertake on this basis and who we may share that information is set out in Table 3.

- d. To perform a public task

It is a day-to-day function of Holy Cross Catholic MAC to ensure that Directors and Local Governing Body Members receive the training and support they require. Much of this work is not set out directly in any legislation but it is deemed to be necessary in order to ensure that Directors and Local Governing Body Members are properly supported and able to fulfil their roles and responsibilities.

Details of the type of processing that we may undertake on this basis and who we may share that information is set out in Table 4.

8. Special category personal information

In order to process 'special category' data, we must be able to demonstrate how the law allows us to do so. In addition to the lawful reasons above, we must also be satisfied that ONE of the following additional lawful reasons applies:

- a. Explicit consent of the data subject
- b. Necessary for carrying out obligations and exercising specific rights in relation to employment and social security and social protection law
- c. Processing relates to personal data which is manifestly made public by the data subject
- d. Necessary for establishing, exercising or defending legal claims
- e. Necessary for reasons of substantial public interest
- f. Necessary for preventive or occupational medicine, or for reasons of public interest in the area of public health
- g. Necessary for archiving, historical research or statistical purposes in the public interest

The lawful reasons for each type of sensitive category personal information that we process is set out in the tables attached.
