1. Introduction

In this policy the Board of Directors, School Local Governing Body and teachers, in partnership with pupils and their parents, set out their intentions about relationships, sex and health education (RSHE). The policy sets out the rationale for, and approach to relationships, sex and health education in the school. This policy is for all seven schools in Holy Cross Catholic MAC from Nursery to Year 13.

2. Our Mission and Aims

Our mission and aims set out the commitment and values that underpin the work of all schools within Holy Cross Catholic MAC.

Our Mission

Our school communities are united as the family of God to provide an outstanding Catholic education for all our pupils. With Christ at the centre of all we do, we will inspire every child to be the best person they can be by developing their God given gifts and talents.

Our Aims

High aspirations for all

Outstanding education – To create an ethos of collective responsibility, through which we will promote achievement and improve pupil performance

Living out Gospel values and celebrating the Catholic ethos in all our schools with reconciliation and peacefulness at the heart of all we do

Young people – who are resilient and make a positive contribution to their diverse and changing communities

Community – strengthening and nurturing the Catholic life of our schools

Realising talent by developing pupils, staff, Local Governing Body representatives and Directors for the benefit of the Holy Cross community

Optimising our resources to realise best-value by sharing assets and using economies of scale

Standards – To maintain the highest quality of Catholic education by ensuring accountability at all levels

Service to God by serving others in our school and local communities and national and international communities in need.

3. Consultation on this Policy

The following groups will be consulted on this draft policy:

- Pupil focus groups/school council
- Parents and Carers (via an online survey)
- Staff and members of the school community
- School Governors
- MAC Board of Directors

4. Dissemination

The policy will be given to all members of the Board of Directors, and all teaching and non-teaching members of staff. Copies of the document will be available to all parents through school websites and Holy Cross Catholic MAC's website. Details of the content of the RSHE curriculum will also be published on school's web sites.

5. Defining Relationship, Sex and Health Education

The Department for Education (DfE) guidance states that "children and young people need to know how to be safe and healthy, and how to manage their academic, personal and social lives in a positive way"

It is about the development of the pupil's knowledge and understanding of themselves as sexual beings, about what it means to be fully human, to live in respectful relationships, being enabled to make moral decisions in conscience and to understand that we are all made in the image and likeness of God and everyone has the right to dignity.

In primary schools the focus will be on "teaching the fundamental building blocks and characteristics of positive relationships, with particular reference to friendships, family relationships, and relationships with other children and with adults."

This would include the topics of:

- families
- the people who care for me
- caring friendships
- respectful relationships
- online relationships
- being safe.

In Secondary schools RSHE should "give young people the information they need to help them develop healthy, nurturing relationships of all kinds, not just intimate relationships. It should enable them to know what a healthy relationship looks like and what makes a good friend, a good colleague and a successful marriage or other type of committed relationship. It should also cover contraception, developing intimate relationships and resisting pressure to have sex (and not applying pressure)."

6. Statutory Curriculum Requirements

We are legally required to teach those aspects of RSHE which are statutory parts of National Curriculum Science.

7. Rationale

We are involved in relationships and sex education precisely because of our Christian beliefs about God and about the human person. The belief in the unique dignity of the human person made in the image and likeness of God underpins the approach to all education in a Catholic school. Our approach to RSHE therefore is rooted in the Catholic Church's teaching of the human person and presented in a positive framework of Christian ideals.

At the heart of the Christian life is the Trinity; Father, Son and Spirit in communion, united in loving relationship and embracing all people and all creation. As a consequence of the Christian belief that we are made in the image and likeness of God, gender and sexuality are seen as God’s gift, reflect God’s beauty, and share in the divine creativity. RSHE, therefore, will be placed firmly within the context of relationship as it is there that sexuality grows and develops.

Following the guidance of the Bishops of England and Wales and as advocated by the DfE. RSHE will be firmly embedded in the PSHE framework as it is concerned with nurturing human wholeness and integral to the physical, spiritual, emotional, moral, social and intellectual development of pupils. It is centred on Christ’s vision of being human as good news and will be positive and prudent, showing the potential for development, while enabling the dangers and risks involved to be understood and appreciated.

All RSHE will be in accordance with the Church’s moral teaching. It will emphasise the central importance of marriage and the family whilst acknowledging that all pupils have a fundamental right to have their life respected whatever household they come from. It will also prepare pupils for life in modern Britain.

8. Values and Virtues

Our programme enshrines Catholic values relating to the importance of stable relationships, marriage and family life. We believe that across Holy Cross Catholic MAC schools, we should create a safe and stimulating environment where everyone knows that they are valued as God’s children. Every person has the right to be treated with respect and each person has the responsibility to treat others in the same way. We believe that all pupils and students, regardless of their starting points, can achieve if they are taught well and are supported effectively. Our belief is underpinned by clear values that drive our moral compass across schools and this permeates our collective pursuit of excellence.

Through the journey of learning and most importantly faith, we strive to create a safe and disciplined environment, where pupils are able to learn, flourish and fulfil their God-given potential.

These values are further supported by the Jesuit virtues which are essential in responding to God’s call to love others with a proper respect for their dignity and the dignity of the human body.

The Jesuit virtues have been devised by the Jesuit community. Fr. Adrian and the Jesuit Institute have allowed the Archdiocese of Birmingham to use and develop their materials to create the Catholic Schools Pupil Profile (CSPP) summarised in the table below:

Pupils in a school in the Archdiocese of Birmingham are growing to be ...	Schools in the Archdiocese of Birmingham help their pupils grow...
Grateful for their own gifts, for the gift of other people, and for the blessings of each day; and generous with their gifts, now and in the future.	By encouraging them to know and be grateful for all their gifts, developing them to the full so that they can be generous in the service of others.
Attentive to their experience and to their vocation; and discerning about the choices they make and the effects of those choices.	By promoting the practice of attentive reflection and discerning decision making: in teaching, in the examen, prayer and retreats; and through the practice and example of school leaders and staff.

Compassionate towards others, near and far, especially the less fortunate; and loving by their just actions and forgiving words.	By being compassionate and loving in the way pupils are treated, especially when a pupil is in trouble; and by opening pupils' eyes to those who suffer poverty, injustice or violence.
Faith-filled in their beliefs and hopeful for the future.	By passing on the living and faith-filled tradition of Jesus Christ; by having persevering faith in the pupils, and by encouraging them in turn, to have faith and hope in themselves and others.
Eloquent and truthful in what they say of themselves, the relations between people, and the world.	By developing an eloquent language which pupils can use to understand and articulate their emotions, beliefs, and questions, encouraged by the example of their teachers to be truthful in the way they represent themselves and speak about the world.
Learned , finding God in all things; and wise in the ways they use their learning for the common good.	By the breadth and depth of the curriculum; by excellence of teaching, and the creation of opportunities to become more learned and wise .
Curious about everything; and active in their engagement with the world, changing what they can for the better.	By leading pupils to be curious about the universe and all human activity, and to take increasing responsibility for their own learning, and by providing opportunities for them to be active in the life of the school, the Church, and the wider community.
Intentional in the way they live and use the resources of the earth, guided by conscience; and prophetic in the example they set to others.	By being a school community which is intentional in its way of proceeding to build-up quality of life; and which is prophetic in the way it offers an alternative vision of education and the human person rooted in the gospel.

9. Aim of RSHE and the Mission Statement

Our Mission Statement "Our school communities are united as the family of God to provide an outstanding Catholic education for all our pupils. With Christ at the centre of all we do, we will inspire every child to be the best person they can be by developing their God given gifts and talents" commits us to the education of the whole child (spiritual, physical, intellectual, moral, social, cultural, emotional) and we believe that RSHE is an integral part of this education. Furthermore, our seven schools state that we will endeavour to raise pupils' self-esteem, help them to grow in knowledge and understanding, recognise the value of all persons and develop caring and sensitive attitudes. It is in this context that we make the following commitment:

Holy Cross Catholic MAC, in partnership with parents or carers, and our seven schools, will provide children and young people with a "positive and prudent sexual education² which is compatible with their physical, cognitive, psychological, and spiritual maturity, and rooted in a Catholic vision of education and the human person".

² DECLARATION ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION Gravissimum Educationis
Proclaimed by His Holiness Pope Paul VI on October 28, 1965

10. Objectives

To develop the following attitudes and virtues:

- reverence for the gift of human sexuality and fertility;
- respect for the dignity of every human being – in their own person and in the person of others;
- joy in the goodness of the created world and their own bodily natures;
- responsibility for their own actions and a recognition of the impact of these on others;
- recognising and valuing their own sexual identity and that of others;
- celebrating the gift of life-long, self-giving love;
- recognising the importance of marriage and family life;
- fidelity in relationships.

To develop the following personal and social skills:

- making sound judgements and good choices which have integrity, and which are respectful of the individual's commitments;
- loving and being loved, and the ability to form friendships and loving, stable relationships free from exploitation, abuse and bullying;
- managing emotions within relationships, and when relationships break down, with confidence, sensitivity and dignity;
- managing conflict positively, recognising the value of difference;
- cultivating humility, mercy and compassion, learning to forgive and be forgiven;
- developing self-esteem and confidence, demonstrating self-respect and empathy for others;
- building resilience and the ability to resist unwanted pressures, recognising the influence and impact of the media, internet and peer groups and so developing the ability to assess pressures and respond appropriately;

- being patient, delaying gratification and learning to recognise the appropriate stages in the development of relationships, and how to love chastely;
- assessing risks and managing behaviours in order to minimise the risk to health and personal integrity.

To know and understand:

- the Church's teaching on relationships and the nature and meaning of sexual love;
- the Church's teaching on marriage and the importance of marriage and family life;
- the centrality and importance of virtue in guiding human living and loving;
- the physical and psychological changes that accompany puberty;
- the facts about human reproduction, how love is expressed sexually and how sexual love plays an essential and sacred role in procreation;
- how to manage fertility in a way which is compatible with their stage of life, their own values and commitments, including an understanding of the difference between natural family planning and artificial contraception;
- how to keep themselves safe from sexually transmitted infections and how to avoid unintended pregnancy, including where to go for advice. (Secondary only)

11. Outcomes

Inclusion and Differentiated Learning

We will ensure RSHE is sensitive to the different needs of individual pupils in respect to pupils' different abilities, levels of maturity and personal circumstances; for example, their own sexual orientation, faith or culture and is taught in a way that does not subject pupils to discrimination. Lessons will also help children to realise the nature and consequences of discrimination, teasing, bullying and aggressive behaviours (including cyber-bullying), use of prejudice-based language and how to respond and ask for help. (In looking at these questions, it is important to draw links to the school's Special Educational Needs and Disability policy).

Equalities Obligations

The Board of Directors and Local Governing Bodies have wider responsibilities under the Equalities Act 2010 and will ensure that across our seven schools we strive to do the best for all of the pupils, irrespective of disability, educational needs, race, nationality, ethnic or national origin, pregnancy, maternity, sex, gender identity, religion or sexual orientation or whether they are looked-after children.

Broad Content of RSHE

Three aspects of RSHE - attitudes and values, knowledge and understanding, and personal and social skills will be provided in three inter-related ways: the whole school / ethos dimension; a cross-curricular dimension and a specific relationships and sex curriculum.

Programme/Resources

Secondary schools are using “A Life to the Full” by Ten Ten.

Teaching strategies may include some or all of the following as well as individual school approaches:

- Establishing ground rules
- Discussion
- Project learning
- Reflection
- Experiential
- Active
- Mind-mapping
- Film & video
- Group work
- Role-play
- Trigger drawings
- Values clarification
- Music
- Liturgy and prayer

12. Assessment

Pupils learning in RSHE will be assessed in the following ways:

- Primary – e.g. Assessment activity to be completed by pupils at the beginning and end of each unit.
- Secondary – e.g. Assessment to be conducted at the conclusion of units. All students have been issued with an RHSE knowledge booklet which will be used by students as we progress providing evidence of participation in the programme.

13. Parents and Carers

We recognise that parents (and other carers who stand in their place) are the primary educators of their children. As a partnership of seven Catholic schools, we provide the Headteacher the means by which the Church assists parents and carers in educating their children. Therefore, the school will support parents and carers by providing material to be shared with their children at home and workshops to help parents/carers to find out more. Parents/carers will be informed when the more sensitive aspects of RSHE will be covered in order that they can be prepared to talk and answer questions about their children’s learning.

Parents must be consulted before this policy is adopted by Holy Cross Catholic MAC schools and at key points in the development of the RSHE programme and they will be able to view the resources used by the school. Our aim is that, at the end of the consultation process, every parent and carer will have full confidence in the school's RSHE programme to meet their child's needs.

For Parents/carers

- Parents will be sent an online questionnaire to gather their views.
- Parents continue to have the right to withdraw their children from Sex Education except in those elements which are required by the National Curriculum science orders. Should parents wish to withdraw their children they are asked to notify the school by contacting the Headteacher in writing. The school will support by providing material for parents to help their children with their learning.
- We believe that the controlled environment of the classroom is the safest place for this curriculum to be followed.
- Please refer to the DfE guidance Page 17 for further details on the right to be excused from sex education (commonly referred to as the right to withdraw).

14. Balanced Curriculum

Whilst promoting Catholic values and virtues and teaching in accordance with Church teaching, we will ensure that pupils are offered a balanced programme by providing an RSHE programme that offers a range of viewpoints on issues.

Pupils will also receive clear, age appropriate, scientific information as well as covering the aspects of the law pertaining to RSHE (this will include aspects relating to forced-marriage, female genital mutilation, abortion, the age of consent and legislation relating to equality). Knowing about facts and enabling young people to explore differing viewpoints is not the same as promoting behaviour and is not incompatible with our school's promotion of Catholic teaching. We will ensure that pupils have access to the learning they need to stay safe, healthy and understand their rights as individuals.

15. Responsibility for Teaching the Programme

Responsibility for the specific relationships and sex education programme lies with the Headteacher delivered by class teachers and other specialist staff.

Secondary schools will use a range of specialist staff including religious studies teachers, science teachers, personal tutors and external providers.

However, all staff will be involved in developing the attitudes and values aspect of the RSHE programme. They will be role models for pupils of good, healthy, wholesome relationships as between staff, other adults and pupils. They will also be contributing to the development of pupils' personal and social skills.

16. External Visitors

Across the seven schools within Holy Cross Catholic MAC, we may call upon help and guidance from outside agencies and health specialists to deliver aspects of RSHE. Such visits will always complement the current programme and never substitute or replace teacher led sessions.

It is important that any external visitor is clear about their role and responsibility whilst they are in school delivering a session. Any visitor must adhere to our code of practice developed in line with CES guidance 'Checklist for External Speakers to Schools'.

Health professionals should follow the school's policies, minimising the potential for disclosures or inappropriate comments using negotiated ground rules and distancing techniques as other teachers would. They will ensure that all teaching is rooted in Catholic principles and practice.

17. Roles and Responsibilities

Board of Directors

- The Board of Directors, through their Catholic Life and Welfare Committee, oversee the implementation of the RSHE policy, in consultation with parents and teachers, RE leads, Senior leaders and the Local Governing Body across the seven schools;
- Ensure that the policy is available to parents and carers;
- Ensure that the policy is in accordance with other whole school policies, e.g., SEN, the ethos of the school and our Christian beliefs;
- Ensure that parents or carers know of their right to withdraw their children;
- Establish a link School representative to share in the monitoring and evaluation of the programme, including resources used;
- Ensure that the policy provides proper and adequate coverage of relevant National Curriculum science topics and the setting of RSHE within PSHE.

Headteacher

The Headteacher in each school, takes overall delegated responsibility for the implementation of this policy and for liaison with the Board of Directors, Local Governing Body, Diocesan Education Service and appropriate agencies, including Local Authority.

PSHE/RSHE Co-Ordinator

The co-ordinator with the Headteacher of each individual school has a general responsibility for supporting other members of staff in the implementation of this policy and will provide a lead in the dissemination of the information relating to RSHE and the provision of in-service training. (They may be supported by the curriculum Senior Leader and the member of staff with responsibility for child protection).

All Staff

RSHE is a whole school issue. All teachers have a responsibility of care; as well as fostering academic progress they should actively contribute to the guardianship and guidance of the physical, moral and spiritual well-being of their pupils. Teachers will be expected to teach RSHE in accordance with the Catholic Ethos of the school. Appropriate training will be made available for all staff teaching RSHE. All staff have been included in the development of this policy and all staff should be aware of the policy and how it relates to them.

18. Children's Questions

The Board of Directors and Local Governing Body across the seven schools, want to promote a healthy, positive atmosphere in which RSHE can take place. They want to ensure that pupils can ask questions freely, be confident that their questions will be answered, and be sure that they will be free from bullying or harassment from other children and young people.

19. Controversial or Sensitive Issues

There will always be sensitive or controversial issues in the field of RSHE. These may be matter of maturity, of personal involvement or experience of children, of disagreement with the official teaching of the Church, of illegal activity or other doubtful, dubious or harmful activity. The Board of Directors and Local Governing Bodies believe that children are best educated, protected from harm and exploitation by discussing such issues openly within the context of the RSHE programme. The use of ground rules, negotiated between teachers and pupils, will help to create a supportive climate for discussion.

Some questions may raise issues which it would not be appropriate for teachers to answer during ordinary class time, e.g., where a child or young person's questions hints at abuse, is deliberately tendentious or is of a personal nature.

20. Supporting Children who are at Risk

Children will also need to feel safe and secure in the environment in which RSHE takes place. Effective RSHE will provide opportunities for discussion of what is and is not appropriate in relationships. Such discussion may well lead to disclosure of a safeguarding issue. Teachers will need to be aware of the needs of their pupils and not let any fears and worries go unnoticed. Where a teacher suspects that a child or young person is a victim of or is at risk of abuse they are required to follow the school's safeguarding policy and immediately inform the designated senior member of staff responsible.

21. Confidentiality and Advice

The Board of Directors, in partnership with individual Local Governing Bodies, all teachers, all support staff, all parents and all pupils must be made aware of this policy, particularly as it relates to issues of advice and confidentiality.

All lessons, especially those in the RSHE programme, will have the best interests of pupils at heart, enabling them to grow in knowledge and understanding of relationships and sex, developing appropriate personal and social skills and becoming appreciative of the values and attitudes which underpin the Christian understanding of what it means to be fully human.

Pupils will be encouraged to talk to their parents/carers about the issues which are discussed in the programme. Teachers will always help pupils facing personal difficulties. Support can be provided by the pastoral team. Teachers should explain to pupils that they cannot offer unconditional confidentiality, in matters which are illegal or abusive for instance. Teachers will explain that in such circumstances they would have to inform others, e.g., parents, Headteacher, but that the pupils would always be informed first that such action was going to be taken

22. Evaluation of Policy

1. The RSHE Co-ordinator, within each school, will monitor the provision of the various dimensions of the programme by examining plans, schemes of work and samples of pupils work at regular intervals. The programme will be evaluated biannually by means of questionnaires/response sheets / needs assessment given to pupils, and / or by discussion with pupils, staff and parents. The results of the evaluation should be reported to these groups of interested parties and their suggestions sought for improvements.
2. The Board of Directors remain ultimately responsible for the policy and information and evaluations will be gathered through the Catholic Life and Welfare Committee which meets half termly. The Board will consider all such evaluations and suggestions before amending the policy.

23. Links to other policies and key documents

This RSHE policy is to be delivered as part of the PSHE framework. It includes guidelines about pupil safety and is compatible with the school's other policy documents (for example, Bullying Policy, Safeguarding Policy, SEND)

Pupils with particular difficulties whether of a physical, intellectual or social/emotional nature will receive appropriately differentiated support in order to enable them to achieve mature knowledge, understanding and skills. Teaching methods will be adapted to meet the varying needs of this group of pupils.

Learning about RSHE in PSHE classes will link to/complement learning in those areas identified in the RSHE audit.

24. Monitoring and Review

- The Board of Directors delegate the implementation of this policy to the School Local Governing Body.
- This policy will be reviewed by the Catholic Life and Welfare Committee of the Board of Directors.
- Implementation of the policy in schools will be reviewed as part of the MAC's rolling programme of Catholic Life, Religious Education and Collective Worship reviews.
